

Holly Ann Scheib, PhD MPH MSW

www.hollyscheib.com

hollyscheib@gmail.com

001.504.208.7368(c)

Education

|                               |  |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)    | Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical MedicineInternational Health and Development, 2010Dissertation: “‘Que no vean como iguales’ (‘They do not see us as equals’): Identity, acculturation, and health in newly arrived Latin American migrants in post-Katrina New Orleans |
| Master of Public Health (MPH) | School of Public Health, University of MichiganCertificate in Reproductive and Women’s Health, 2003  |
| Master of Social Work (MSW)   | School of Social Work, University of MichiganConcentration in Community Organization and Management, 2003  |
| Bachelor of Arts (BA)         | Interdisciplinary Studies, Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State UniversityConcentration in Women’s Studies, Minor in English, 1998Magna Cum Laude  |
| Bachelor of Arts (BA)         | Theatre Arts, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State UniversityConcentration in Arts Administration, 1998Magna Cum Laude   |

Academic Appointments

|           |  |
|-----------|--|
| 2014-2016 | Visiting Scholar, Center for Human Rights and International Justice, Boston CollegeCo-authoring guidelines for participatory and action research methodologies  |
| 2010-2013 | Fellow, Center for Global Health Equity, Department of Community Global Health and Behavioral Sciences, Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical MedicineDevelopment of graduate level public health course with the University of Havana School of Public Health, CubaProposal writing for Center research initiatives |
| 2009-2012 | Visiting Scholar, Center for Human Rights and International Justice, Boston CollegeLecturer, researcher, and resource for Center-affiliated work relating to participatory and action methods   |

2010-2011 Interim Director, International Programs, Tulane University School of Social Work, New Orleans

Development, leadership, oversight, and coordination for all internationally located and/or globally focused programs within the School of Social Work

Management of International Programs staff (full-time university employees and work-study students)

Direction and leadership to International Programs Directing Board, comprised of Social Work faculty and administrators

Oversight and development of university partnership agreement and logistics for international student exchange with Tata Institute of Social Sciences in Mumbai, India

Oversight of scholarly exchange visit with Rwandan Social Work lecturers from the University of Rwanda, Butare

Creation and teaching implementation of core curricula relevant to International Social Work, including development theories and global practice skills for International Social Work certificate students, encompassing two academic courses and three practicum sequenced courses for both on-campus and online students

Active participation in Education Program Committee, tasked to bring globally-focused lessons, readings, and learning goals to all relevant social work curricula and post-graduate training events for students, faculty, and alumni

Management of International Social Work certificate program, including site visits and academic support for current students, and recruitment and advising for new students

Development of new international field sites including establishing logistic and institutional agreements for International Social Work students

Placement, coordination, academic planning, and supervision for Master of Social Work certificate students conducting fieldwork in the United States, Belize, Tanzania, Rwanda, South Africa, Jordan, and India

Advising for students in dual Master of Social Work/Master of Public Health (MSW/MPH) degree program

Teaching Appointments

2013-present Short Course Lecturer, Oxford University, Refugee Studies Center (RSC), UK

Refugee Studies Center Short Course for students and practitioners: “Humanitarian approaches to health and wellness in forced migration populations”

Co-Investigator on UNICEF and RSC proposal to study Gender Based Violence in complex emergencies and consultant to ongoing proposals

- 2011- 2012     Adjunct Assistant Professor, Department of Global Community Health and Behavioral Sciences, Tulane School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine
- Global Community Health and Behavioral Sciences 0603, “Social and Behavioral Aspects of Global Health”
Created online course syllabus and requirements to meet the needs of students completing overseas internships and in distance learning programs
Online Instructor, Fall 2011 and Spring 2012
Created and pilot taught undergraduate version of the course for third year public health undergraduate students
Instructor, Spring 2012
- Global Community Health and Behavioral Sciences, 0799, “Public Health and Social Welfare in Cuba: Exploring Services in the Socialist State” (planned)
Developed partnership with University of Havana School of Public Health
- 2009 - 2011     Adjunct Assistant Professor, School of Social Work, Tulane University
- Social Work 771, “Contemporary Issues in Global Context: Psychosocial Well-being and Cross-Cultural Practice”
Designed course in collaboration with Social Work Faculty; Redesigned in collaboration with International Programs Committee, 2011
Instructor, Summer 2011
Instructor, Summer 2010
Co-instructor, Summer 2009
- Social Work 770, “Global Perspectives in Social Work Practice”
Designed course in collaboration with Social Work Faculty in 2009; Redesigned in collaboration with International Programs Committee, 2011
Instructor, Summer 2011
Co-instructor, Summer 2009
- Social Work 723, “Theories of Social Change”
Designed syllabus based on accreditation requirements to address gaps in department curriculum
Instructor and Course Coordinator, Spring 2011
- Social Work 783, “Reframing International Policy to Local Conversations: Examination, Advocacy, and Action”
Designed Independent Study Course based on student interests and requests, Fall 2010
- Social Work 751, “International Field Practice Seminar”
Online Instructor, Fall 2011
Instructor, Summer 2011
- 2009             Teaching Assistant, International Health 622, “Qualitative Methods in Health Research,” Tulane University
Responsible for course coordination, supervision of ethnographic field work, grading, and laboratory instruction for approximately 20 public health, tropical medicine, and medical school graduate students

- 2008      Teaching Assistant, International Health 655, “Health and Development Issues in Peru” (summer travel course taught in Peru), Tulane University
Responsible for course coordination, developing assignments, and logistic oversight for approximately 12 public health, tropical medicine, and medical school students for graduate course in conducted Peru
- 2006-2007      Teaching Assistant, International Health 615, “Public Health and Nutrition in Complex Emergencies,” Tulane University
Responsible for course coordination, developing assignments, grading, and laboratory instruction for approximately 40 public health, tropical medicine, and medical school graduate students
- 2003-2004      Assistant, Global Intercultural Experience for Undergraduates (GIEU) “Making a Difference: International Community Service Learning” Morazán, Honduras, University of Michigan
Assisted with GIEU program coordination and support for approximately 12 undergraduate students placed as volunteers with social service agencies and living with host families
- 2001-2003      Graduate Instructor, Women’s Studies/Nursing 220 (cross-listed course), “Perspectives in Women’s Health,” University of Michigan
Planned lessons, instructed, and evaluated 75 students per semester in three discussion class sections with topics including gender, race, class, sexuality, dis/ability, nationality, and positionality, and how these factors shape health
- 2002-2003      Health Teacher, Stone School High School, Ann Arbor, Michigan
Syllabus creation, lesson planning, instruction, and evaluation students in a “second chance” high school for adolescents who were not successful in public schools
- 2002      Community Health Educator, VIDYA Adult Education Program, Moti Lal Nehru and R.K. Puram Camps, New Delhi, India
Planned, created materials, and conducted lessons for adult women in two slum communities in New Delhi, India on women’s health issues including anatomy and physiology, menstruation, breastfeeding, pregnancy, HIV, and STIs

|   |
|---|
| Professional Consultancies and Formal Employment |
|---|

- 2014      Technical Consultant, Psychosocial Programming and Child Center Spaces Technical Review, Child Fund International, Washington, DC
- Conducting a technical review of psychosocial interventions within child center spaces in emergencies, and a study of past and present Child Fund psychosocial programs and child center spaces interventions to identify best practices, gaps in training, and field site needs
- Designing revised materials to update programs to international standards of emergency response; to integrate to organizational mission and structure; to add in evaluation measures; and to fill gaps in professional competencies and training for partnering facilitators and field staff

- 2014 External Reviewer, Bachelor of Science in Public Health Curriculum and Course Design, Xi'an Jiaotong-Liverpool University, China
- 2014 Technical Consultant, Community-Based Participatory Methods and Strategic Planning, Louisiana Public Health Institute (LPHI), New Orleans, Louisiana
- Conducted retrospective assessment of community-based organizations Mary Queen of Vietnam Community Development Cooperative (MQVN CDC) and Bayou Interfaith Shared Community Organizing (BISCO) to support and clarify the organizations' compliance as partners with Tulane University and LPHI in the Gulf Resilience on Women's Health (GROWH) research project
- 2014 Community Development Consultant, Blue Ullu Women's Self-Help Group and Fairly Made Clothing Cooperative, Garum Village, Himachal Pradesh, India
- Provided consultation in community development goal setting, impact evaluation, and leadership development among women members of registered self-help group in rural village in northern India
- 2014 Primary Investigator, "Community Change through Women-lead enterprise," Garum Village, Himachal Pradesh, India
- Primary Investigator in research study to explore how community, households, families, and individual are altered through the development, implementation, and professionalization of micro enterprising business and self-help organization in a rural village in northern India
- 2014 Technical Consultant, Deliberative Methods Applications and Research, Louisiana Public Health Institute (LPHI), New Orleans, Louisiana
- Submitted study design and background research for Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) proposal using deliberative methods to explore how recruitment strategies for minority participation clinical trials and health research may be increased
- 2012-2013 Subject Matter Expert Consultant, Global Health, Laureate Education, University of Liverpool, Liverpool, United Kingdom
- Collaboratively designed and wrote full program of coursework for online Master of Public Health program, with emphasis on the needs of students in low- to middle- income countries
- Presented major trends in global health to team of faculty, administrators, and education specialists, to assist in online Master of Public Health program re-design
- Participated in program summit to create strategic educational framework for University of Liverpool
- 2012-2013 Technical Consultant, Proposal Development and Program Monitoring and Evaluation, War Trauma Foundation, Amsterdam, The Netherlands
- Coordinated successful program proposal for peace and reconciliation projects with World Health Organization (Sudan), International Office for Migration (Sudan), and region partners in north Darfur

Creating monitoring and evaluation plans for proposed projects involving Psychological First Aid intervention and training programs

Collaboratively prepared proposals for United States Institute for Peace related to the study of psychosocial intervention in humanitarian contexts

2011-2012 Technical Consultant, Monitoring and Evaluation, Mental Health and Psychosocial Programs, International Medical Corps, Amman, Jordan

Conducted on-site study of program, staff, and clients with focus on program efficiency, data use, and client needs

Developed and adapted assessment tools for monitoring and evaluation of IMC Jordan's case management services

Designed technology application to monitor client services, patient load, and treatment outcomes

Trained field staff in program measurement and assessment

Supplemented case management education and training program for IMC mental health programs, with intention of presenting to WHO mental health working group as a future standard of care

2010-2012 Consultant, Survey Design and Evaluation, Plaquemines Parish Small Business Oil Spill Impact Survey, Urban Conservancy and Stay Local!, New Orleans, Louisiana

Provided technical expertise in collaboration with interdisciplinary team of researchers and community organizations to conduct community impact survey using community-based research methods in survey design and implementation

2011 Consultant, Office of Global Programs, Tulane University School of Social Work, New Orleans, Louisiana

Supervised overseas internships for seven Master of Social Work students in 6 field sites in Belize, India, Jordan, Rwanda, and South Africa

Conducted field seminar coursework via online resources (Blackboard, Skype, and Adobe Connect) to facilitate academic learning while completing internship requirements

Provided consultation and planning for globally-focused University events and special guests for fall 2011

Analyzed existing programs and partnerships with recommendations for areas of potential growth for the Office's Global Programs

2009-2011 Participatory Action Research and Photography Consultant, "Two Communities, One Photovoice: Voices and Photographs of Community Health Work and Workers in Post-Katrina New Orleans," New Orleans, Louisiana

Collaborating with Boston College researcher, community health workers from two local organizations, and members of the community in a Participatory Action Research project with Latina and African American community health workers

Facilitating project workshops and trainings in ethics, research, photography, and cross-cultural dialogue with goals of exhibition, publication, and communicating community needs to area stakeholders

2008-2010 Monitoring and Evaluation Consultant, Latino Health Access Network, Catholic Charities, New Orleans, Louisiana

Developed monitoring and evaluation program for Latino Health Access Network grants related to USDA food stamp and Medicaid enrollment programs

Conducted focus groups and surveys with clients and staff, and collected ongoing service-related data from LHAN and partnering programs

Prepared final reports with evaluation conclusions and grant requirements for fulfillment of program tasks

2009-2010 Program Director, Albert Schweitzer Fellowship Program, New Orleans, Louisiana

Provided directorial leadership in all organizational efforts, events, and activities, including: budget decisions, fundraising campaigns, donor identification and involvement, strategic planning, leading board development and engagement, and interfacing with community stakeholders, donors, and partners

Negotiated organizational branding, cost sharing, and program coordination with national office

Conducted program development fundraising, and public relations activities through budget development, grant writing, press inquiries, and outreach

Recruited, mentored, supervised, and evaluated graduate students selected to be Fellows in fulfilling direct community service activities, public symposia, and service events

2007-2008 Consultant, Greater New Orleans Nonprofit Knowledge Works, New Orleans, Louisiana

Used Census 2000 data to create baseline demographics for the 13 recovery districts in the Greater New Orleans area to track recovery progress

Collaborated with local, state, and federal representatives to design a classification system for disaster information, referral priorities, and information dissemination applied within FEMA disaster models

2007 Evaluation Consultant and Focus Group Facilitator, Katrina Aid Today Case Managers, New Orleans, Louisiana

Assisted in focus group facilitation and data dissemination of recovery case managers as part of the Katrina Aid Today program evaluation of recovery services

- 2006            Preliminary Ethnographic Research, Lima, Peru
- Volunteered with MIMDES (Ministerio de la Mujer y Desarrollo Social, The Ministry for Women and Social Development) in Ventanilla Pachacutec Callao, Peru
- Conducted preliminary ethnographic fieldwork on violence and women's health in pueblos jóvenes in Ventanilla Pachacutec
- 2003-2006      Consultant, Assistant Research Scientist, Maternity Care in Northern Rural Honduras, Morazán, Honduras
- Coordinated research and documentation to obtain project approval from University Institutional Review Board (IRB) and acquisition of project funding from Rackham Summer Interdisciplinary Institute, University of Michigan
- Conducted participant observation and interviews within the community of Morazán during data collection in August, 2003 and July, 2004
- Analyzed ethnographic data and wrote documents for publication and conference dissemination
- 2004            Consultant, Research Assistant, Center for Research on Learning and Teaching, University of Michigan
- Performed qualitative data analysis of approximately 1200 surveys studying how classroom instruction impacts student retention in college science courses
- 2003            Consultant, Research Assistant, Michigan Midwifery Benchmarking Project, University of Michigan
- Coordinated development of benchmarking tool to track satisfaction, cost, and procedural outcomes in midwifery services
- 2002            Community Health Assessment Coordinator, Cross Cultural Solutions, Himachal Pradesh, India
- Conducted interviews and focus groups to assess of the health needs of the Sidhberi District of Himachal Pradesh and prepared report of findings
- 2001            Management and Administration Intern, Department of Social Work, University of Michigan Health Systems
- Designed research system to track emergency service use, which resulted in an expansion of weekend services
- Assessed bi-annual staff satisfaction reports leading to development of 5-year departmental strategic plan
- Directed staff evaluation by developing and managing new web-based processing of peer and supervisor evaluations

Designed survey instrument used in statewide Maternal Support Services (MSS) program evaluation and comparison

Completed clinical rotations participating in patient and family counseling, education, and resource referral in various areas of University of Michigan Hospital Social Work Department: Maternal Support Services (MSS), Emergency Department, Trauma/Burn Unit, Adult Internal Medicine, and Discharge Planning

1999-2000 Adult Sexual Assault Program Coordinator and Counselor, Women's Resource Center of the New River Valley, Radford, Virginia

Conducted individual counseling and support groups for sexual, domestic, and childhood abuse survivors

Advocated for victims of violence in hospitals, police stations, university settings, and during court room proceedings

Developed and implemented community outreach and education programs to increase violence awareness in rural areas

Directed volunteer program through recruitment, training, and supervision of volunteers

1998-1999 Staff Assistant, Office of the Deputy Chair for Grants and Awards, National Endowment for the Arts, Washington, D.C.

Assessed federal arts grants to offer suggestions on improvements for future applications

Assisted in integration of Office with the rest of the agency, government bodies, and public

Publications and Reports

Lykes, M.B., and Scheib, H. (in press) The artistry of emancipatory practice: Creative dialogues within and between participatory action research and photovoice. In: The Handbook of Action Research (Hilary Bradbury, editor), Sage Publications. Expected 2015.

Lykes, M.B., and Scheib, H. (submitted) Two communities, one photovoice: Visual methodologies, participatory action research, and community health workers in Post-Katrina New Orleans. Global Public Health. Special Issue, Participatory Visual Methodologies and Global Public Health. (Claudia Mitchell and Marni Sommer, editors).

Scheib, H. 2014. Retrospective case study on two community organizations' experiences and outcomes within community-based participatory research within environmental health research projects: Lessons learned and strategies for moving forward. Internal report prepared for Louisiana Public Health Institute, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Scheib, H., and Lykes, B. PhotoPAR as a strategy for health literacy development in post-Katrina New Orleans. Journal of Health Psychology. Special Issue: Health Literacy and Engagement. Volume 18(8): 1069-1084.

Scheib, H. 2012. Monitoring and Evaluation of Mental Health and Psychosocial Programming in International Medical Corps Programs in Amman. Internal report prepared for International Medical Corps, Amman, Jordan.

Scheib, H. 2012. Evaluation of Health of a Nation Scales (HoNOS) within Humanitarian Contexts of Mental Health and Psychosocial Health Programming. Internal report and literature review prepared for International Medical Corps, Amman, Jordan.

Dodson, B., and Eness, D. (with Scheib, H., and Nelson, M). 2012. My Heart is Tied Up in this Place: The Economic Impact of the BP Horizon Gulf Oil Spill on Plaquemines Parish's Local Businesses. The Urban Conservancy. Report prepared for Plaquemines Parish Chamber of Commerce.

Scheib, H. "It is a strange truth:" Experiences of transnational motherhood in newly arrived migrants in post-Katrina New Orleans. Journal of the Motherhood Initiative. Mothering and Migration: (Trans)nationalisms, Globalization and Displacement. 2.2: Fall/Winter 2011.

"Public Health Social Work and the Rebuilding of New Orleans," In The Handbook of Health and Social Work, Section Edition (Sarah Gehlert and Teri Arthur Browne, editors), Text Box within Chapter 4, "Public Health Social Work," by Deborah R. Schild and Marjorie R. Sable. John Wiley & Sons, Inc., 2011.

Scheib, H. Moving past acculturation: How migrants to post-Katrina New Orleans reframe the discussion of Latin American health disparities. Submission pending,

Scheib, H., and Lykes, B. Participatory Methods as Tools in Women's Leadership Development in Post-Disaster New Orleans. Submission Pending, Scheib, H. Getting your graduates jobs: Moving global social work curriculum into skills-based practice. Submission pending.

Kadetz, P., Scheib, H., Mock, N. The Disaster Waiting to Happen: Gender, vulnerability, and the normative disaster paradigm in the context of post-Katrina New Orleans. Submission pending, Scheib, H., and Kadetz, P. Herbal Therapies for pregnancy and childbirth used by parteras in rural Honduras. Submission pending, Scheib, H. (2009). Evaluation of Promotoras Community Health Outreach Program in Latino Health Access Network. Catholic Charities of Louisiana. Internal report Prepared for Catholic Charities of Louisiana.

Scheib, H., Lovera, S., Hembling, J. (2008). Latino Health in New Orleans. Latino Health Access Network, Catholic Charities of Louisiana. Internal report Prepared for Catholic Charities of Louisiana.

Low, LK; Scheib, H; Montino, JB, Sacks, E. (2006). Challenges for traditional birth attendants in northern rural Honduras. Midwifery. Volume 22, Issue 1, pp: 78-97.

Special Thanks for Statistical Analysis, in: Jawa, A., Nachimuthu, S., Pendergrass, M., Asnani, S., and Fonseca, V. Impaired Vascular Reactivity in African-American Patients with Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus and Microalbuminuria or Proteinuria Despite Angiotensin-Converting Enzyme Inhibitor Therapy. The Journal of Clinical Endocrinology & Metabolism. Vol. 91, No. 1, 2006, pp: 31-35.

Wright, MC; Cook, CE; O'Neal, C; Scheib, H. "I can succeed in the subject": Classroom climate and retention in the sciences. Internal report for Center for Learning and Teaching, School of Education, University of Michigan, 2004.

Manuscript Peer-Review

- |           |  |
|-----------|--|
| 2012-2014 | Political Psychology, journal published by the International Society of Political Psychology                             |
| 2013      | Cengage Learning and Publishers, Academic Text Reviewer for "Introduction to Public Health" and "Public Health Practice" |
| 2013      | International Perspectives in Psychology, journal published by the American Psychological Association                    |

Conference Presentations

- |      |  |
|------|--|
| 2014 | Speaker, "Participatory Methods for Women's Leadership Development," Community is the Answer: Annual Conference of the International Agency for Cooperation in Development, University of Scotland, Glasgow, United Kingdom  |
| 2012 | Presenter, "Comprehensive case management in mental health and psychosocial services with primary health care to Iraqi refugees," Breaking the Mould: Climate Change, Community Resilience, Disaster Interventions and Humanitarian Aid when Empowering Local Communities, Durham University, United Kingdom                 |
| 2012 | Plenary Speaker, "Participatory Action Research using Photovoice," New Orleans Schweitzer Fellows Mid-Year Conference, New Orleans   |
| 2011 | Plenary Speaker, "One Community One Photovoice: African Americans and Latinas Participatory Action Research in Post-Katrina New Orleans," Center for Human Rights and International Justice, Boston College  |
| 2011 | Workshop Presenter, "Two Communities, One Voice: Health Risks and Promotion in Post-Katrina New Orleans through the lens of Participatory Action Research and PhotoVoice," Institute for the Study and Promotion of Race and Culture, Diversity Challenge Conference, Boston College   |
| 2011 | Session Presenter, "'It is a strange truth:' Experiences of transnational motherhood in newly arrived migrants in post-Katrina New Orleans," Motherhood Initiative for Research and Community Involvement (MIRCI), International Conference on Motherhood Activism, Advocacy, and Agency, Toronto, Canada                    |
| 2010 | Presenter, "Transnational Migrants, Social Relations, and Lived Realities," within the Session for the Society for Urban, National and Transnational/ Global Anthropology, Life Courses, Life Choices, and Life Chances in Transnational Migration , American Anthropology Association Annual Conference, New Orleans |

- 2010 Presenter, “Two Communities: One Photovoice,” Louisiana Nonprofit Organization (LANO) Conference, New Orleans
- 2010 Exhibit Presenter, “Community-Based Participatory Action Research and PhotoVoice: Documenting Cross-Community Dialogue and Models of Women’s Leadership Development in Post-Katrina New Orleans,” Katrina @5 Partners in Philanthropy Conference, New Orleans
- 2009 Presenter, “And just how IS New Orleans? An update on the city and recovery,” Schweitzer Fellows for Life Conference, Albert Schweitzer Fellowship, Chicago
- 2009 Presenter, “‘Que no nos vean como iguales’ (‘They do not see us as equals’): Identity, acculturation, and health in newly arrived Latin American immigrants in post-Katrina New Orleans,” Annual Conference of the Society for Medical Anthropology, Yale University
- 2009 Workshop Presenter, “Community-Based Participatory Action Research and PhotoVoice: Documenting Cross-Community Dialogue and Models of Women’s Leadership Development in Post-Katrina New Orleans,” Imagining America 2009 Conference, New Orleans
- 2008 Poster Presenter, “‘Por falta de documentos y seguro’: Health under the radar for Latinos in post-Katrina New Orleans,” Albert Schweitzer Foundation Fellows for Life Conference, Harvard University
- 2005 Poster Presenter (accepted), “Herbal practices of traditional birth attendants in northern rural Honduras,” Annual Conference of the American Public Health Association, Philadelphia
- 2005 Lecturer and Presenter, “Challenges to traditional birth attendants in northern rural Honduras,” Tulane Health Sciences Research Days, Tulane University
- 2002 Poster Presenter, “Health Education and Community Assessment in Northern India,” School of Public Health, Health Behavior and Health Education Internship Poster Presentation, University of Michigan
- 2000 Plenary Speaker, “The Saints Cry Out: Helping Clergy Respond to Sexual Violence,” Radford University Conference on Sexual Violence

Lectures, Panels and Interviews

- 2013 Visiting Guest, “Moving from charity to evidence-based social programs,” and “Outcome measurement for social programs,” Community Food and Outreach Center of Central Florida, Orlando, Florida
- 2013 Workshop Facilitator and Guest Speaker, “Considerations for Monitoring and Evaluation in Health Programs,” New Orleans Schweitzer Fellows Program, New Orleans

- 2012 Guest Speaker, “Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities in Global Health,” University of Liverpool School of Public Health Programme Summit, University of Liverpool, United Kingdom
- 2012 Guest Speaker, “Female Genital Cutting: Violation of Human Rights or a Right to be Protected?” Invited Speaker’s Series, Tulane Law School
- 2011 Panelist, “Community-Based Action Research,” American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting, New Orleans
- 2010 Exhibitor, “Community-Based Participatory Action Research and PhotoVoice: Documenting Cross-Community Dialogue and Models of Women’s Leadership Development in Post-Katrina New Orleans,” Crescent City Farmer’s Market, New Orleans
- 2008 Panelist, “Unnatural Causes: is inequality making us sick?” Documentary screening discussion on the series episode “Becoming American,” Ashe Cultural Center, New Orleans
- 2008 Featured Guest, “Greater New Orleans news program,” PBS affiliate WLAE-TV New Orleans with host Tom Bagwill. Interview focused on health inequalities among immigrants in New Orleans and the role of the Albert Schweitzer Program
- 2006 Guest Lecturer, “Newborn Survival” and “Measurement Indicators for Newborn Survival,” INHL 712: Monitoring and Evaluating Maternal and Child Health Programs in International Settings, Tulane University
- 2005 Featured Speaker, “Challenges to traditional birth attendants in northern rural Honduras,” Tulane Health Sciences Research Days, Tulane University
- 2004 Speaker, “Maternity Care Transitions in Northern Rural Honduras: A Preliminary Ethnographic Inquiry,” Institute for Women and Gender, Research Speaker Series, University of Michigan
- 2003 Panelist, “Volunteering Abroad,” International Opportunities Exhibition, University of Michigan International Center
- 2003 Guest Speaker, “International Volunteerism and NGOs,” University of Michigan International Center
- 2003 Panelist, “International Social Work,” University of Michigan School of Social Work
- 2003 Guest Speaker, “Preparing for an International Career,” University of Michigan International Center

|                               |
|-------------------------------|
| Academic Honors |
|-------------------------------|

Albert Schweitzer Fellow, New Orleans’ Inaugural Cohort, 2008-2009

Tulane Health Sciences Research Award for Excellence in Women's Health Research, 2005

School of Public Health Merit Scholarship, University of Michigan, 2001

Board Member, Global Health Council, Michigan Chapter, 2001 – 2004

School of Social Work Michigan Scholar, 2000 – 2001

Garnet and Gold Women's Honor Society, 1998

Golden Key Honor Society, 1998

Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars (Charter Member, Board of Directors and Vice President 1997 – 1998)

Who's Who in American Universities, 1997 & 1998

Excellence in the Arts University Scholarship, 1996

Selected Professional Activities

Member, Mental Health Psychosocial Support (MHPSS) Network

Member, American Public Health Association

Member, American Anthropological Association

Member, International Social Work Association

Member, International Agency for Cooperation in Development

Member, Motherhood Initiative for Research and Community Involvement

Board Member, Hope Stone New Orleans, New Orleans, 2014

Board Advisor of New Orleans Schweitzer Fellowship Program, New Orleans, 2013-2014

Featured Photographer in "New Orleans by New Orleans," R. Potucek and R. Smolar, editors. Smolarcorp Publishing, 2012

Photojournalist for Global Health Magazine, providing photography covering International Health course for magazine article, Tulane School of Public Health website, and University promotional literature, 2008

Advisory Board Member of Latino Health Access Network (LHAN), New Orleans, 2007-2010

Translation and support to Spanish-speaking families, Catholic Charities and Egan Health Systems, New Orleans, 2006-2009

Founding Parent, Abeona House Child Discovery Center, New Orleans, 2005

Author and Photographer for non-peer reviewed article pertaining to New Orleans Recovery published in August 2007 Neighborhood Partnership Network Publication “The Trumpet”

Other Skills

Languages: Spanish (Moderate/Conversational), French (Basic), Arabic (Basic), Hindi (Beginning), Italian (Beginning)

Research Packages: STATA, SPSS, Epi Info, NVivo, StatTransfer

Applications: Adobe Dreamweaver, Adobe Acrobat, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, Aperture, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint), Microsoft Access, Microsoft FrontPage, NeoOffice, Internet: HTML, CSS, and PHP proficiency, web design, FTP, e-mail

Online Education and Networking Systems: Blackboard, Adobe Breeze, Adobe Connect, Skype, Blogging Platforms, Twitter

Operating Systems: Macintosh OS, Windows, Unix/Linux